What we talked about	What we said	What needs to happen, who will do it?
Hello & Welcome	Welcomed the new members at Chesterfield and Derby and Introduced the CIC and what we do	Young people will be asked to volunteer to organise and facilitate the ice breaker at the next meeting – RP to email out to YP
Ice Breaker Game – The After Eight Mint Challenge	The After Eight Mint Challenge is a game of skill, co-ordination of the facial muscles and balance; using only your facial expressions you have to move the mint from your forehead into your mouth. Baby wipes were on hand to keep us all clean and chocolate free! This is harder than it looks but we all managed in some way shape or form.	RP to bought the mints and wet wipes – ideas for more games ?? the young people have been tasked with this for the next meetings.
Reminder of Your Group Contract	Gentle reminder of ‘Group Contract’ so all those involved are aware of the expectations of the Caring Voice meetings and the boundaries the young people themselves have come up with.	Contract needs to be revisited at each meeting so any new members are aware and actions can be added if need be.
Dr. jenny Taylor from Horizons (Emotional Wellbeing Service for Children Newly Admitted into Care Service)	Dr. Jenny came to the Derby group to present a leaflet they would like to use with young people for evaluation. Jenny spoke about change, emotions, moving into	RP to make contact with Dr. Jenny from Horizons to discuss the evaluation of the leaflet and make concerns known.

	care. What could help each and every one of them? The group talked about building relationships with people, someone who understands and who they can trust. The group thought the best way forward with the leaflet was for young people to complete with their social worker. The group evaluated the leaflet and made the following recommendations; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • YP disliked the logo • Some of them said the leaflet was ok but boring • RP has concerns about the ‘magic wand’ questions and amount of questions, negative connotations, repetitive, long term piece of work, feel needs re wording to be more child friendly. Felt young people involvement needed from the beginning of the process not at the end.
Writing Articles for your CICC Newsletter	Group looked at how they could contribute to the new CICC newsletter. Derby Group sat and wrote article about their recent experiences at Lea Green. High Peak Kori agreed to write up his recent visit to Wogan House Radio 1 on Friday 06.05.17 when he went with Baby People and send in a photograph.	RP to include article in next newsletter. MH to send RP completed article Kori to send RP article for next newsletter ASAP from Radio One visit in May + photograph.
CICC – The Big Conversation update	RP informed our new members about the CIC involvement in the ‘Big Conversation’ and that a planning session would be on the next Agenda for the August meeting with decision makers. Connor from the Derby Group has asked ‘how would he go about having a corn snake’ as a pet?	RP has organised an Evaluation of the ‘Pledge’ scheduled now for August 2017 to coincide with the departmental away day for Social Workers to monitor the progress of the issues highlighted by young people for decision makers. RP to speak to both House Managers and put on

		the Agenda for the Steering Group next time to discuss.
Update on the Corporate Parenting Group to present the 'Pledge' on 25 th April at 2pm	Codie and Caitlin had volunteered to attend the Corporate Parent Group to present the 'Pledge' on 25 th April. The girl's did amazingly well with their presentation to the group and they delivered with poise and confidence – well done to you both!	Certificates of attendance to be sent out to both girl's to celebrate their achievement. (RP)
CICC Steering Group Update	Ruth gave an update to the meeting from the Steering Group in relation to the 'You Said – We Did' comments from the last meeting in relation to changing the meeting times and providing food.	Young people unanimously agreed that the change in time and provision of food was a real positive.
Trip Out Update	The group voted to explore the Scuba Diving at Belper Pool and revisit Bowling in the Autumn term.	RP made contact with the Diving group and awaiting a response from Belper re sufficient kit to accommodate the group. RP to chase.
What's in a Name??	The groups all looked at what the CICC could be called as some adults found the name CICC Caring Voice confusing. RP tasked the group to come up with a new name.	The group looked at various names <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • V4U (Voice for You) • L2MP (Listen to Me Please) • V4LAC (Voice for Looked After Children) • Have a Voice • AFAM (Amazing Friends, Amazing Minds) and will be presenting the names to the CICC Steering Group at the next meeting to make a decision to what the group should be called.
What questions should be asked at Foster Panels??	Mary Halliwell (Foster Panel Advisor) visited the group (Chesterfield) to ask what questions they thought should be asked of Foster carers at panel. Mary spoke about the role of the Foster Panel and the young people felt that the foster panel should know their stories so they do not have to repeat them, how will they help me towards independence? Respect people's problems and	The group made some suggestions to Mary of questions they thought should be asked and Mary took these away to consider.

	issues and discuss with me and How will you help me with my homework?
AOB CICC Leaflet Design revamp	(High Peak) Kori and Anthony volunteered to revamp this leaflet, along with Johnathan and Rhianna from Derby and the completed artwork will be judged by the CICC Steering Group at their next meeting in June. The winner will receive a £10 love to shop voucher.	Completed Artwork designs to be sent to ruth.peat@derbyshire.gov.uk by 9 th June at 4pm the very latest.
Skype	The group would like to explore using Skype and Chloe (VS) has agreed to bring her works laptop/ipad to experiment at the next meeting.
Date of the Next Meetings:	Monday 17 th July – High Peak Tuesday 18 th July – Derby Thursday 20 th July – Chesterfield 6-7:30pm with food
